ST. PAUL PHYSICIAN ELECTED TO MMA BOARD OF TRUSTEES

MINNEAPOLIS – The Minnesota Medical Association has elected David Thorson, M.D., to serve a three-year term representing the East Metro District on the MMA Board of Trustees. The MMA is a professional organization representing about 10,000 physicians, fellows, residents, and medical students in Minnesota. The election was held September 15 in Minneapolis during the MMA's 153rd Annual Meeting.

The Board of Trustees manages the affairs of the MMA between sessions of the House of Delegates.

Dr. Thorson is a board certified family physician with a CAQ in sports medicine and practices in St. Paul. He is the past president of the Minnesota Academy of Family Physicians and a delegate to the American Academy of Family physicians. He serves on four ICSI workgroups and is active in the American College of Sports Medicine. Dr. Thorson is a member of the Ramsey Medical Society Board of Directors.
